INTERESTING FROM WASHINGTON.

The Departure of the Walker Expedition for Nicaragua—Its Probable Course.

THE LATE MORMON OUTRAGE ON THE PLAINS.

Despatches Exchanged between Madrid and Washington—The Administration and Mexico—The Problem of Secretary Cobb on Mormon Affairs—The New-York Post-Office—The Next Congressional Election.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Your correspondent's forebodings are realized. General WALKER is fairly off on another expedition. In Cabinet meeting to-day his movements were discussed. Despatches were received from the United States Attorney of New-Orleans giving the minutest details. The statement that WALKER took arms and munitions of war with him from that port, is believed to be correct. Whether, however, a disposition on the part of the Federal officers at New-Orleans for permitting him to finish their vigilance, or whether they were completely deceived, is not known. The President contemplates the right to seize his expedition at sea, but will not order his confinement if found to be quite within any foreign jurisdiction.

The Navy-Yard steamer Saginaw, that the steamer Fulton was in the Mississippi River when WALKER embarked, must be an error. The last letters received from her Commander, dated the 1st of November, announce her having fulfilled his orders there, and that he would depart immediately for Chiriqui. It is supposed, therefore, that she still remained in the river on the 11th. There is little doubt that the Fulton was on the Costa Rican coast at that time, and WALKER is consequently in no danger from her. He has at least some armed force with him, and his reinforcements, instead of being near Mobile, as was supposed by the President, is in the Caribbean Sea, and has never even been transported. His friends here are confident now that he will safely reach Nicaragua. The only American vessels watching for him are the Fulton and Saratoga—the latter at San Juan and the former at Chiriqui.

The correspondent proceeded to the mouth of the Colorado branch of the San Juan, emptying thirty miles below Greytown, where no force is stationed except the British vessel, which is not anticipated. If WALKER deemed preferable, he can land at Blewfields, sixty miles north of San Juan, which is not guarded at all, and thence proceed up the Blewfield River, cross overland to the healthy upland region, and taking the Chontales country, entering Segovia, which is full of supplies of every kind, and whose people have always been against the Chamorrites and friendly to WALKER. Crossing Segovia, the head of the Lake is reached. By adopting this plan, the expedition will not go very close to the neighborhood of the naval stations.

At any rate, since within harbor, he can land at Greytown, and proceed to the San Juan River, up which he is expected to force his way, taking the weakly garrisoned forts, and pushing his way to the Pacific.

Despatches from California are supposed to be here on the way. If received, they will probably give the first news of the movements of the Walker expedition. Should they not arrive, the inference is to proceed to Costa Rica and strike at once at San Juan. The resident Ons carrying out the original plan of the campaign.

Mormon affairs were also considered in Cabinet to-day. The State Department has a despatch from one of the newly-appointed Utah Judges, giving an account of the recent destruction by the Mormons of the wagon-train with the Army supplies. It was a most outrageous affair, and not a regular Army transport. It is impossible to send out any reinforcements or additional supplies this Winter, but the Army is believed to have an abundance. The last letter from Col. JOHNSTON, commanding the expedition, reiterates the determination to enter the Utah Valley before Winter, where he will not let his men starve while the Mormon granaries are overflowing. Col. JOHNSTON left four companies of infantry at Fort Laramie to keep communication open.

Governor IZARD, of Nebraska, having resigned and gone home, the President hopes that RICHARDSON, of Illinois, will reconsider his declination and accept the place.

Secretary TOUCEY, without referring it to the President, declined to entertain the question as to the propriety of the interposition against which Lieutenant Commander HARNEY protested in Naval Court—so the Court persisted in its ex parte examination into the conduct of the latter relative.

A successor to ANDERSON, late U. S. Minister at the Hague, is to be sent as U. S. Minister to Madrid. The appointment was among the first determined upon by Mr. BUCHANAN, and will be consummated in due time. The selection of Mr. BELMONT to represent the United States at the Court of Spain signalizes much more than the personal esteem in which he is held by the President. Mr. BUCHANAN still cherishes the hope of acquiring Cuba by purchase, and has told several occasions that he must have the European Minister filled with the right material for the prosecution of this object.

The late Minister at the Hague is deemed especially fitted to represent us at Madrid, because of his connection with the Rothschilds, and other great bankers of Europe, through whose influence or aid Spain is expected to be forced to part with Cuba. The anticipated means of producing such a result are to be found in the immense foreign debt of Spain—consolidated chiefly by the Rothschilds—and a proposition to compel her to raise the money to take them up or pay up the interest. Under pressure it is supposed she may be compelled to sell the island of Cuba in order to raise the necessary funds.

It would seem perfectly safe to predict the utter failure of this policy, when we remember how little disposition Spain manifests to pay any portion of her $750,000,000 of bonds, on a large part of which she even fails to pay the interest. The $125,000,000 which Mr. BUCHANAN is willing to pay for Cuba, would scarcely be a drop in the bucket towards reducing the foreign debt of Spain; and the Rothschilds, should a sale on this part ever be consummated, would not be permitted to make the effort.

It is quite evident that a policy for the acquisition of Cuba has passed, and will be accomplished, if ever, by peaceful purchase for a long time to come, if ever. The last Administration had its chance for forming a correct opinion upon this point, and events will probably vindicate its conclusions.

It is not probable that anything decisive will be done in our Mexican relations at present. Although it is evident that the Comonfort Government, now that the President has dictatorial powers, is the strongest which our Minister has seen for years, and the most friendly to our countries. As I noticed you yesterday, the subject has been under consideration in the Cabinet, but it is surrounded with difficulties not easily overcome. Interference of a personal character, through every consideration of dignity and patriotism should induce the President to break his way, it is an acknowledged impossibility to accomplish anything. Comonfort is the only present Minister, Mr. FOREST, resigning, and that post for he still will obey instructions, continually disregarding them. He is doubtless aware of the fact that the President would receive his resignation with exceeding joy; but he no the least idea of gratifying him. He would be removed, undoubtedly, but he has a brother-in-law in the Senate, Mr. IVERSON, of Georgia, who will not consent to it, and declares that he will sacrifice himself rather than submit to the sacrifice of his friend. Mr. BUCHANAN dislikes to encounter the enmity of a Democratic Senator, and the local dissensions likely to grow out of such a state of facts in Georgia, and the chances are, therefore, that matters will be permitted to shake as they are.

Gov. WALKER'S friends, who expected him home a few days ago, do not look for him now until after the Kansas Constitution shall have been acted upon by the people of the Territory.

Mr. COBB has evidently been greatly misunderstood in regard to his views of Gov. WALKER'S course, and his recommendations of the course to be pursued to-ward him by the Administration. He does not favor the removal of the Governor. When he thinks he did unreasonably exceed his authority in the matter of rejecting the Oxford returns, and does not hesitate to say so; he looks to the merits of his action, and believing that to have been a good one, bids the CITOT to have been reasonable. Technically wrong as he decided the Governor was, he believes him at bottom morally right.

From the beginning of the crusade against WALKER in the South, I understand that Mr. COBB has been constant and earnest in his efforts to sustain him in Georgia and elsewhere,—always persisting in the strongest terms that the Democratic Party could not stand upon the policy of refusing to submit the Kansas Constitution to the people, and that the Governor in promising that this should be done, promised no more than every citizen of the South would demand for himself.

I do not make this explanation at Mr. COBB'S suggestion, directly or indirectly; but having been the innocent means, in part, of propagating the erroneous statement of his position, justice to him and to the public requires this voluntary statement at my hands.

Do the City authorities of New-York know the fact, that unless a site for your new Post-Office is immediately allotted in the Park, the entire appropriation of half-a-million dollars will lapse, and so be lost altogether until Congress can be induced to reappropriate it? This is the fact. Mr. BROWN will purchase no site, at present, unless assurance can be had in the Park; and if the appropriation is not expended at the end of two years, the presumption of the law is, that it is not required, and it goes back into the Treasury to the credit of the general fund.

The Clerkship of the next House of Representatives is sought by several aspirants. Prominent among these are JAMES C. ALLEN, of Illinois; JOHN L. ROBINSON, of Indiana; and A. D. BANES, of Virginia. RICHARD CONNELLY, of New-York, was understood to be a candidate a while ago; but as nothing is heard of his claims now-a-days, he has probably abandoned the track. The Clerkship will depend somewhat upon the decision of the Speakership, as no two officers are likely to be taken from the same section. If Colonel ORR or any other Southern man is elected Speaker, Mr. BANES will necessarily retire from the contest for Clerk. If Mr. FERLEY, Mr. HARRIS, of Illinois, or any other Western man, should be nominated to the Speakership, either the printing or the Clerkship will go to the South, and then Mr. BANES' star will be in the ascendant again. Assuming that a Southern Speaker is chosen, Mr. ALLEN is pretty sure of the Clerkship. In that case Mr. BANES is a candidate for Printer to the House, and will start with a pretty strong capital of friends from his own section.

In regard to the printing, all sorts of combinations are making. The Union office will probably get the Senate printing without much difficulty, and Mr. WENDELL, the present printer, is a candidate for re-election as certain. He has in competition with him, in addition to Mr. BANES, Col. FORNEY of the Philadelphia Press, whose claims are urged with a good deal of energy by some very active and determined members elect. Major RITEY, of the Washington States, while not a candidate, may be considered against the reelection of Mr. WENDELL, and so adds to the force against whom the present printer has to contend. It would be hazardous to attempt a prediction as to the result.

For Doorkeeper of the House, DARLING, present incumbent, has lingering hopes of hanging on through some impossible combination between Know-Nothings, Fire-Eaters and Republicans. He will probably realize the scriptural declaration that "the hopes of the wicked shall perish." Some good Democrat is certain to have the place. Among the candidates are Mr. MCKNEW, who held the place during the Congress before the last; Mr. HACKNEY, of Virginia; PETER GORMAN, of Maryland, and Mr. WOODBRIDGE, of New-York. My own impression is that some Northern man not yet named will win the prize.

Mr. A. J. GLASSBRENNER will probably be again re-elected Sergeant-at-Arms. For Postmaster of the House, Mr. JOHNSON, of Virginia, who held the office for many years, is a candidate. The chances, however, are in favor of Mr. HERMAN W. CUNNER, of this city, a young and talented Democratic writer, who is exceedingly popular with his party, and would make an efficient and faithful officer.

These are the prizes to be contended for, and these the claimants who are entered for the race in the House of Representatives on the first Monday of December. From among the gentlemen named the organization will be completed in all probability, although some unexpected turn in the political wheel of fortune may bring quite a different set of men uppermost within the next two or three weeks. [FROM THE REPORTER FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

WASHINGTON, Friday, Nov. 13.

General CASS, to-day, received a letter from Judge ECKELS, Chief Justice of Utah, who is on the way to the territory and beyond Fort Laramie, stating that an express had arrived bringing intelligence of an attack on the United States Quartermaster's train by the Mormons, in which 70 army wagons and their contents were destroyed. The Government officials here do not fully credit the report.

Emphatic instructions have been sent South with the view, if possible, to intercept General WALKER and his party.

The Treasurer's statement shows the amount in the different depositories to be $11,668,000, of which $8,755,000 is subject to draft. The receipts for the week ending the 9th instant amount to nearly $680,000.

The Case of Donnelly.

TRENTON, N. J., Friday, Nov. 13.

Col. WARREN SCOTT made a strong argument to-day against the verdict against DONNELLY. He showed by the records that it was contradictory. He also cited authorities to show that it was contrary to law, because each count in the indictment charged DONNELLY with the same murder and Moses with the same death, and as each count was a distinct charge, the prisoner is found guilty of having inflicted the same wound four times, from which MOSES suffered four distinct and separate deaths—an impossibility.

J. P. BRADLEY then reviewed the evidence in the case, and the circumstances attending it, to show that aside from the dying declarations of Moses there was nothing to convict DONNELLY.

The argument is to reverse the judgment of the Court below.

News from Rio de Janeiro.

We have dates from Rio de Janeiro to Oct. 1. In the Journal do Comercio of Sept. 30 we find the following:

"It has been reported for some days back that the gravest disorder had broken out on board the United States frigate St. Lawrence, anchored in this port. Out of our colleagues this morning thus notices this rumor:

"It has been rumored that on board the American frigate St. Lawrence the crew had mutinied and threatened to take the life of the Commodore and other officers. It appears that one of the sailors convicted of an infamous crime, had been condemned to a punishment which the Commodore did not judge to be sufficiently severe for a man who had twice been punished for the same cause. A new penalty being imposed by the Court Martial, the crew mutinied to such an extent that help was asked from the French and English man-of-war in the harbor to arrest the revolters. A new Court-martial was held and eighteen of the mutineers were sentenced to death."

We are authorized to state that these facts are not altogether correct. On board the St. Lawrence five sailors are under trial for immoral conduct; but the process is not yet concluded, and consequently there has been no condemnation. There has been only one sentence on board the St. Lawrence. A sailor insulted his officer, and was condemned to finish his term of enlistment in a penitentiary to the United States. The supposed mutiny is without any foundation, but the report arose from the fact that on the 14th inst., five men who were on leave ashore, were taken off in a state of beastly intoxication. They became unruly during the night and were put under arrest. This occurrence was, however, deemed of so little consequence that the Commander-in-Chief was not even informed of it. The false report of the mutiny created much excitement in the city.

News from the Rio de la Plata.

In the Journal do Comercio, of Rio de Janeiro, we find dates from Buenos Ayres to Sept. 18, and Montevideo to Sept. 16.

In Montevideo the coming election was creating stirring times. Parties were very much exasperated against each other, and all idea of conciliation was repudiated. Bloody events were expected to take place during November.

In Buenos Ayres the government had ordered all persons born in the country to enlist in the National Guard. Messrs. MACKINLAY, ANDREA and GAINZA LEMOS, sons of English residents, and the brothers MARTINEBORE, sons of French residents, refused to enroll themselves in the civil corps, declaring that they had adopted as their country the country of their parents.

The Government decided that by the Constitution all persons born in the country were citizens of the State, and ordered these gentlemen to be arrested for violation of the law. After their arrest, protesting against the violence that was done their persons, they provided substitutes, whose services in the National Guard were refused.

The French and English Consuls had told the subjects of their Nations at Rosas, and great excitement existed in consequence.

The Arabia reached Liverpool on her outward passage at 6 o'clock on the evening of the 25th of October.

The Arabia brings $366,022 7s. 8d. from Liverpool, and £26,475 80-100 from Havre.

The steamer City of Washington, arrived out at Liverpool at 10 P. M., on the 16th of October.

The Fulton arrived at Southampton, and the New-York at Glasgow, on the 20th.

The Arago arrived at Southampton on the 30th.

The Arabia's advices were published in London on Monday, the 26th ultimo, and the Money Article of the London Times dated that evening says: "The entire suspension of specie payments by the New-York and Boston Banks is the most satisfactory announcement that could have been looked for." The papers generally regard the matter in much the same light.

On the Stock Exchange the news was at first regarded as unfavorable, and Consols opened at a decline of an eighth, but this was soon more than recovered, and on the capture of Delhi becoming known, the market became very firm, and the closing price was 89.

The demand for discount at the Bank was excessive under the apprehension of a further rise in the rate, but none took place.

The suspension of WARD & BRAND of London, engaged in large American transactions, was announced. Liabilities stated at £140,000.

On Tuesday the suspension of the "Borough Bank" of Liverpool took place, owing to the refusal of the Bank of England to make certain advances. The claims of depositors are stated at nearly a million and a half of sterling, but the capital of the Bank would ultimately meet all demands. The event created considerable embarrassment in Liverpool, and later in the week several firms suspended in consequence.

On the Stock Exchange the funds declined ¼ per cent. under this Bank failure.

On Wednesday the advices by the City of Washington were published, and served to strengthen the favorable impression made by the Arabia's news. The funds fluctuated somewhat during the day, and money was in very active demand.

The house of Thornton, Huggins, Ward & Co. of Huddersfield and Manchester, failed, with liabilities for half a million sterling in the American trade. Several other American houses were hard pressed, but it was expected they would get through. Charles Smith & Co., of Manchester, in the muslin trade, were brought down in connection with the difficulties in Glasgow.

The East India Company were borrowers of £750,000 to provide for silver remittances about to be made by them to Calcutta.

On Thursday the stock market was buoyant, and an advance in the funds was well maintained. Money was in active demand at the Bank, but was quite abundant in the Stock Exchange at 4@5 per cent.

The failure of JAMES COMBIE, writer, Perth, was announced. Liabilities about £130,000; assets very small.

The Western Bank of Scotland at Glasgow, had been in difficulties, but it was announced that it would receive full aid to meet them. It is said that one of the conditions under which aid was furnished, was, that the Bank should ultimately wind up. Its deposits are expected to amount to about $6,000,000.

On Friday, the Stock market was active at an advance, and Consols closed at 89¾@89¾ for Money and 89⅞@89¾ for Account. Money continued in good demand, at about 3 @ 4 per cent. The bullion in the Bank of England decreased during the week, £154,604.

Nothing is definitely stated in regard to the Liverpool failures. They are believed to be mostly connected with the trade of the British American Provinces.

The mails from India had arrived at Southampton, bringing intelligence of the fall of Delhi.

It is officially announced that the Treasury has made arrangements for the more prompt publication of the weekly returns of the Bank of England. The day of their appearance in the Gazette will be Friday, as usual, but they will be made up to the preceding Wednesday night. The first publication under the new method will be in the Gazette of Friday next, which will contain the accounts up to the 4th.

The officers of the United States frigate Niagara, in order to evince their appreciation of their courteous reception in England, gave a public ball and supper at the Royal Hotel, Plymouth. The decorations of the ball-room displayed the good taste which prevails in the American Navy, and gave full evidence of warm attachment to the British nation. There was a numerous attendance of the nobility and gentry, with the heads of the naval and military departments. The entertainment was altogether of a very sumptuous character.

The Chinese Embassy, consisting of four Ambassadors and a numerous retinue, had arrived in England, and were attracting much attention.

The American horses, Prioress and Babylon, made an ingloious performance in the race for the Cambridgeshire stakes at Newmarket. Thirty-one horses ran, and Babylon actually came in last. Mr. PAREY'S Odd Trick was the winner.

Several shipwrecks had occurred on the eastern coast of England during the prevalence of heavy gales. The ship Ontario, of Shields, was lost, and 23 persons on board of her were drowned. No American vessels appear to have suffered.

The morning of Tuesday, Nov. 3, had been finally fixed upon for the launch of the Great Eastern.

The Queen had formerly approved of Mr. WYMAN R. S. MOORE to be Consul-General in the British North American Provinces for the United States.

The Leeds Mercury, in noticing the visit of Hon. CHARLES SUMNER to that place, says that Mr. SUMNER's health has been very greatly restored, and that he will return to America in the steamer of the 7th of November, and be in his place in the Senate on the opening of Congress.

Sir W. GORE OUSELEY had received his credentials as special Minister to Central America. He first goes to Washington to consult with the American Government on Central American affairs generally.

Paris letters state that the question of a suspension of specie payments by the Bank of France, in preference to an unlimited rise in the rate of discount, should affairs get worse, had been under discussion. The government, it was said, had determined not to sanction such a movement.

A reduction to the amount of thirteen millions francs is demanded in the estimate of the war office. This, says the correspondent of the Times, means a reduction in the army.

General CAVAIGNAC died very suddenly of aneurism of the heart while out shooting. He was to be buried at Paris on the 31st October.

The Moniteur says there is an excess in the revenue for 1859 of 46,000,000 francs.

The Patrie announces that negotiations are going on between France and England for an exchange of territory in India. It is proposed that France should give up her possessions in Cisalpine to England, receiving as an equivalent a portion of territory near Pondicherry.

It is stated that a Conference will probably be held in London about the 10th of November, with a view to settle the existing differences between Mexico and Spain, and that the mediators England and France, will probably be represented respectively by the Earl of CLARENDON and Count DE PERSIGNY. But few difficulties are anticipated.

Per contra.—The Paris correspondent of the London Times says that the negotiations will probably be carried on in Paris, and Lord CLARENDON is not likely to take part in the matter. He also says that Mexico agreed to accept the mediation on condition that M. LAFRAGUA shall be previously received by the Court of Madrid in his official capacity.

The new Spanish Ministry is thus constituted: MARTINEZ DE LA ROSA, Foreign Affairs; JOSEPH CASARE, Justice; MON, Finance; Admiral BUSTILLO, Marine; HERMUDES DE CASTRO, Interior; SALAVERRIA, Public Works; Admiral ARMERO, War, with the Presidency of the Council.

The Marquis DE CORBERA is named Governor of Madrid.

On the 24th of October, in view of the continuance of the King's malady, the Prince of Brussels assumed the conduct of public affairs, in the name of the King, in virtue of a mandate signed by His Majesty on the previous day. No change whatever would be made in the Ministry or policy of the Government.

The King continues to improve in health, both mentally and bodily.

The house of BALANDO & Co., of Milan, had failed, with liabilities estimated at £300,000 sterling.

Heavy rains had caused serious floods in various parts of Italy. The railroads were badly damaged and travel for a time impeded.

Letters from Naples continue to complain of glaring government outrages. In one of his communications the correspondent of the London Times says:

"On his entrance into office the present excellent United States Minister had occasion to act very decidedly in behalf of United States citizens, and from that time to this he has never had the slightest cause of complaint, and American citizens are more respected here than the subjects of any government."

The epidemic continued to prevail with great violence at Lisbon. At the latest dates the deaths numbered 130 to 140 per day. Commerce was entirely suspended.

Lisbon dates to the 26th October say the fever was then on the decline.

The Swiss elections had resulted largely in favor of the liberals.

Numerous additional failures had taken place in Vienna, but the Times correspondent in that city, under date Oct. 25, says, "the Money Market is less agitated, and it is believed that the worst of the crisis is over."

It is stated that the Austrian Government have protested against the fortifications erected by Russia at the entrance of the sea of Azoff.

The health of the King of Sweden is said to be critical.

Cholera had begun to decline in Sweden. It is stated to have carried off 5,000 persons since its invasion.

It is stated that the Prussian Government has instructed its representative at the federal diet in Frankfort to lay the whole matter of the dispute with Denmark in regard to the Duchy of Holstein, before that body, and to apply to the Austrian representative there for his cooperation in the affair.

The first sitting of the Conference on the question of the Danubian Principalities, it is expected, will be held about the middle of November.

THE FINANCIAL CRISIS.

HOW THE NEWS OF THE AMERICAN BANK SUSPENSION IS RECEIVED IN ENGLAND.

From the London Times, (City Article,) Oct. 24.

The entire suspension of specie payments by the New-York and Boston Banks announced this morning by the Arabia itself, is the most satisfactory announcement that could have been looked for. Had the step been taken a fortnight ago, an immense amount of ruin might have been averted. The Banks, after having by their mismanagement brought about the crisis, by which rendered the panic possible, saved themselves by the sacrifice of the whole mercantile community, but the public at last forced the matter into their own hands, and [illegible] to a stoppage, which will place them in a condition with their visitors and [illegible] the struggle. Their course [illegible] by a system of most [illegible] factory announcement that could have been devised

THE POLICY OF THE BANK OF ENGLAND AND THE AMERICAN CRISIS.

From the London Times, (City article,) Oct. 30.

It transpired (says the writer) this afternoon that some difficulties in the position of the Liverpool Borough Bank had rendered an application necessary to the Bank of England for assistance. A court of directors was summoned to consider the case, and the application was favorably entertained. The borough bank will, therefore, be furnished with means to discharge every outstanding claim; it is to be understood it will be required to wind up its affairs as speedily as possible, but with the least sacrifice of the property of the shareholders. It was stated in the city that the directors of the Bank of England had been induced to take this step in consequence of the present panic, and the fear that the failure of the Liverpool Borough Bank might lead to a run upon the Bank of England. We have no reason to believe that any such apprehension existed in the minds of the directors, but it was thought desirable to afford every facility to the Liverpool Borough Bank to wind up its affairs, and to prevent the possibility of any loss to the customers of the bank.

From the London Times, (City article,) Oct. 31.

The Liverpool Borough Bank, which has been under the supervision of the Bank of England since Friday last, has resumed business, and is now in full operation. The directors have determined to pay all the claims upon the bank, and to wind up its affairs with the least possible delay. The bank has been in existence about 20 years, and has a capital of £500,000, of which £250,000 has been paid up. The deposits are stated to be £1,000,000, and the bills under discount £1,500,000. The bank has 12 branches in Lancashire and Yorkshire, and 4 in London. The directors have issued a circular to the shareholders, in which they say that the bank has been compelled to suspend payment in consequence of the general pressure in the money market, and the withdrawal of deposits to the amount of £1,000,000 within the last few days. They have, however, the satisfaction of stating that the bank is perfectly solvent, and that the assets are sufficient to pay all the liabilities. The directors have, therefore, arranged with the Bank of England to advance the necessary funds to pay the claims upon the bank, and to wind up its affairs with the least possible delay. The directors have also arranged with the Bank of England to discount the bills of the bank to the amount of £1,500,000, and to advance £1,000,000 on the security of the deposits. The bank will be carried on by the directors under the control of the Bank of England, and it is hoped that the business will be resumed in a few days.

Benefit of the Creditors of
WM. BUCHANAN MACKENZIE,
New-York City.
We are sorry to be compelled to make the above announcement or one of our most enterprising and active merchants in the City, long and universally considered to be the only finished artist in the Mantilla and Cloak trade in this country. His styles, from the time of his opening the Brandreth Building until the present period, have ever been pronounced by ladies of taste and discrimination, as the first in quality and design in the fashionable world, being manufactured of the very best materials which the Paris market affords, and for the retail trade of this City exclusively. This last fact is one which should recommend them to the public in preference to the now prevailing practice of retailing goods made up for the wholesale trade, for we are well assured that he has earned for his establishment its present popularity by adhering to the above regulation. Having selected the fashions of his stock from the Parisian and London Salons, and in common with tens of thousands of others seen overtaken by the stringency of the times, our friend MACKENZIE has been compelled to offer his elegant stock at 40 per cent. below cost, in order to get back his investment for the raw material. Those desiring the richest goods at the most fearful sacrifice of prices, will give us a call.—New-York Press.
The following is a list of the goods to be sold at retail for cash:
$30,000 Paris-made Cloaks in Velvet and Cloth, of this present season's manufacture,
$40,000 Manufactured Cloaks for City retail trade, of the best French materials, in Beaver Cloth and rich Lyons Velvets,
$10,000 Fancy Grey and other desirable colors,
$25,000 in Real Furs, such as Mink, Sable, Fitch and others.
